CHAMPIONSHIP & CUP
ZAGREB-CROATIA
July, 8 - 12 2012

OFFICIAL TEAM
INVITATION

XXXI EUROPEAN SENIOR GOLFERS ASSOCIATION CHAMPIONSHIP & CUP

ZAGREB / CROATIA / July, 8 - 12 2012

Dear President and fellow members, dear friends!

It is special honour to our Croatian Senior Golfers Association to organize, for the first time in Croatia, the significant event such as the ESGA Championship and Cup 2012, together with President and Ladies Cup.

As usually, in accordance with the ESGA rules, the Championship and Cup will be played separately, on two courses:

Championship will be played at „Golf and Country Club Zagreb“ 8 km from the official Hotel and Cup will be played at „Golf Course Castle Mokrice“ situated in Slovenia, 30 km away from the Hotel.

The President and Ladies Cup will be played on the third golf course, that for now we will leave as a surprise.

The official hotel, Westin Zagreb, is situated in the centre of the city. The City of Zagreb as the host city has numerous hotels and we have chosen The Hotel Westin Zagreb, as the nearest to the golf courses and has capacity to accommodate all participants in the competition, offers everything needed for organising event plus it gives you different possibilities at your leisure time like; wellness, gym, casino, restaurants and walking distance to the most attractive parts of Zagreb.

I am sure you will enjoy this event, the golf courses and the city, so I am proud to invite you to participate.

Looking forward to your registrations and participations.

Until then, I sending you my warm greetings and looking forward to meeting you at this nice sport event in Zagreb.

See you at the XXXI ESGA Championship & Cup in Zagreb!

Respectfully Yours,

Ranko Zečić, President of the Croatian Senior Golfers Association

ZAGREB / CROATIA / July, 8 - 12 2012

European Senior Golfers Championship & Cup Rules & Conditions of Play

I Definitions

ESGA Committee: During tournaments the ESGA Committee will consist of at least two members, the President and the Secretary-General or their designated deputies, thus representing the Board of ESGA.

Championship Committee: The Championship Committee is an honorary committee, formed by at least four members: the President of ESGA, the President of the National Senior Golfers Association of the organizing country and the Presidents of the Clubs, where the tournaments are being played, or their deputies. The Championship Committee watches over and shall strive for a good atmosphere during the event and ensure that the tournament is being played in the true spirit of the game. This Committee may give advice to anyone at any time.

Tournament Committee: The Tournament Committee is formed by the organizing country and is responsible for the organization of the tournament. As a Committee, its responsibility is defined in the Rules of Golf 33 and 34. The composition of the Committee is up to the organizing country, but shall consist of at least one official referee and one person nominated by the ESGA Committee. Also a Tournament Director will be designated.

II General

The European Championship and Cup for Senior teams is an annual tournament of the European Senior Golfers Association (ESGA), open to amateur golfers of ESGA Members.

The tournament will take place in the countries of the Senior Golfers Associations, rotation not being obligatory. The ESGA's General Assembly is entitled to grant the organization of this tournament to a particular Association during one or several years, its choice not being based on who applied first, but on criteria such as accessibility, general quality, economy, climate and other factors.

Every year the ESGA's General Assembly will establish the location and the dates of the tournament at least two years ahead. The tournament is composed by the EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIP (gross), carrying the name "CHALLENGE RAYMOND BARBIER", and the CUP (net) "CHALLENGE WILLIAM O'BABB". The host national Association will organize both of them.

The language in force is English.

III Entry requirements and fees

Article 1 Teams

For the championship, ESGA members may enter one team of six players, with the exact individual handicap limited to 12.0.

For the Cup, ESGA members may only enter one team of six players with the exact individual handicap limited to 16.0. The handicap of winners may be verified.

Article 2 Entries

Entry forms will be sent out by the organizing country at least six months before the competition. Entries must be made by fax or e-mail to the organizing Association at the latest four months before the competition, while players' names, handicaps and rankings must be announced two weeks before the first day of the tournament. Subsequently, no substitutions are permitted.

ZAGREB / CROATIA / July, 8 - 12 2012

Article 3 Age

All players must be at least 55 years of age on the day before the tournament starts. Every player must conform in all respects to the Rules of Amateur Status.

Article 4 Handicap

Not later than at the Captains' meeting on the practice day the Captain of each team shall submit the up to date EGA Exact handicaps of the players.

a. For players with a CONGU UHS handicap, participating in a competition played according to the EGA Handicap System, the Playing handicap has to be calculated as follows:

Playing handicap = CONGU Exact handicap + (Course Rating minus Par), rounded.

b. For players with an EGA handicap, participating in a competition played according to the CONGU system, the playing handicap has to be calculated as follows:

Competition handicap (= playing handicap) = EGA Exact handicap x (Slope rate of his home club divided by 113), rounded.

A certificate of the handicap or a score card, mentioning the Slope rate of his home club, is required to substantiate the home club rating. If the Slope rate of the home club is not available a Slope rate of 124 is applicable.

Article 5 Fees

The entry fees shall be determined by the Member Association organizing the tournament, in accordance with the ESGA Committee with one practice day to be granted before the Competition.

IV Format of the Competition

Article 6 Format

The Championship shall be played over 54 holes Strokeplay on three consecutive days, 18 holes per day, gross without handicap allowance.

The Cup will be played over 54 holes Strokeplay on three consecutive days, 18 holes per day, net with full handicap.

The Tournament Committee may, if necessary, modify the format of the competition, cancel or change the number of rounds fixed in these regulations. It is recommended, in case the course is unplayable, to cancel the day and leave the rest of the scheduled program unchanged.

The four lowest gross scores (for the Cup: net scores) returned each day by a team will count. The team ranking will be based on the total of these four scores.

Article 7 Tie

In case of a tie after three rounds the winner shall be determined by the team total of the four scores for the third round, then the second round, then the first round. If there is still a tie, the best disregarded score of the last day will count, then the sixth score of the same day and so on for the second and first day. When a tie still exists, the winner will be determined by lot.

Article 8 Rules

The Championship and the Cup will be played in accordance to the R&A Rules of Golf and the Local Rules of the host Club, as prepared by the Tournament Committee.

Article 9 Advice

Caddies are permitted; in addition only the team Captain can give advice to the members of his team on the course (Rule 8).

ZAGREB / CROATIA / July, 8 - 12 2012

Article 10 Balls and Clubs

Only balls and clubs conforming to specifications set forth in Appendix II of the Rules of Golf shall be used.

Article 11 Official Notice Board

Starting times, teams' lists, Local Rules, changes in procedure etc. will be posted on the Official Notice Board provided in the Golf Club and on the information boards in the hotels. Captains and players should be aware of information posted there. No other information will be considered official.

Article 12 Starting times and Starting order

Players from three different Associations shall tee off in three-ball matches at ten minute intervals, unless otherwise requested by the Tournament Committee.

On the first day each team will have two starting times in the first third of the field, two in the middle third and two in the last third. The ballot will decide the order within these thirds. The captain of each team will assign two players to the slots so designated by the Tournament Committee.

On the second day the starting times will be as much as possible in the reverse order.

The Tournament Committee will ensure that two players of the same Association will not play in the same flight.

On the last day the starting times shall be according to the ranking order, starting from the bottom ranked teams and finishing with the highest ranked ones in the last slots.

Article 13 Captains' Meeting

The Captains' meeting will take place at the end of the practice day. The Tournament Director, Head Referee and all Team Captains should attend. Local rules, course conditions and "Pace of Play policy" (Rule 6-7) will be explained; questions from captains will be answered. Location of the recording area shall be indicated.

V Special Rules

Article 14 Disqualification

Any team that returns less than four scores in a round shall be excluded from the tournament results. A player disqualified for one day will be able to play the other round, unless otherwise decided by the Tournament Committee.

Article 15 Failure to start

Note to Rule 6-3 will apply: if a player arrives at his starting point ready to play within five minutes after the starting time, the penalty for failure to start on time will be two strokes at the first hole. The penalty for a delay in excess of five minutes is disqualification for the round. The starting time is the time stated on the starter list or the time that is called by the starter, depending on which is later.

Article 16 Buggies

Buggies are not permitted, unless explicitly approved by the ESGA Committee. Exception: if a medical attest, during the tournament, is given to a player who cannot continue playing, the Tournament Committee may grant such a player a buggy, if available.

Article 17 Mobile Phones

The active and passive use of mobile telephones is prohibited on the course, except in case of emergency, so recognized by the Committee, or to require a referee. In case of repeated breaches, the Tournament Committee may invoke Rule 33-7 "Serious breach of Etiquette" and proceed according to Decision 33-7/8.

Article 18 Distance devices

Distance devices, range finders etc. are not permitted, unless explicitly approved by the ESGA Committee

VI Trophies and Prizes

Article 19 Team Prizes

The "CHALLENGE RAYMOND BARBIER" is offered by the Association Sportive des Seniors de France, which retains ownership. The cup will be entrusted to the name of the member whose team is the winner of the European Championship.

The "CHALLENGE WILLIAM O'BABB" will be entrusted to the name of the member whose team is the winner of European Cup.

The winning members will be responsible for the engraving and for returning both cups before the next competition. Six prizes will be offered to each team finishing first, second and third in the Championship and the Cup.

Article 20 Individual Prizes

The player with the lowest individual total gross score (the Champion of ESGA) and the player with the total lowest individual net score will receive special prizes. Players finishing second and third in both competitions will also receive prizes. In case of a tie, the prize will be awarded to the player with the best gross score (resp. the best net score) for the third round, then the second round, then the first round. If a tie then still exists, the matching card method of the last nine, then the last six, then the last three and the last hole shall be adopted on the results of the last round. If at this point a tie still remains, the prize shall be awarded by lot.

VII Recommendations

Article 21

As the friendly and sporting character of the tournaments is an important goal of the ESGA, participants should experience the tournament as most enjoyable, while playing and behaving in the true spirit of the game.

The final results should be ready at the Closing/Prize giving ceremony and to be presented and distributed to all team captains.

Members of the Tournament Committee, referees and Captains should speak and understand the English language.

To avoid slow play:

Championship:

the course length for the Championship not to exceed 6000m, based on par 72

the length of a flat par 3 hole not to exceed 180m

Cup:

the course length for the Cup not to exceed 5900m, based on par 72

the length of a flat par 3 hole not to exceed 170m

Championship & Cup:

as from pin positions to be reasonably placed the Tournament Committee should provide forecaddies where necessary

the captains to inform their players:

to be on the right starting tee 15 minutes before the starting time when searching for balls, to give priority without delay
