4th – 8th September

EUROPEAN SENIOR MEN'S TEAM CHAMPIONSHIP

VENUE: Clube de Golf do Estoril

Presentation

The Estoril Golf, exists since 1929, in its first version of only nine holes, was built by Fausto Figueiredo, the founder of the Palácio Estoril Hotel and the Casino Estoril. Its architect was Jean Gassiat and the 18 hole course that followed was designed 1945 by Mackenzie Ross, considered by many, one of the world's best golf architects.

Later the course was modified to allow the construction of the highway A5, the project was done by the French architect Jean Jean. On this transformation the famous 9th hole, played over the main road, disappeared. The 13th – the Patiño hole – was also changed, it has now a right dog leg and the second shot is played where the old green was located. The new green is now on a elevated location. With all these changes a new hole was built, the 13th, a par 3 with 160 metres.
