- Day 2: Four Ball Greensome Stableford. Each foursome is chosen by lot under supervision of the directors of the tournament.

- Day 3: Standard Stableford Scoring. The first 3 countries (gross and net) tee off in negative handicap order, best handicaps last. As of score #4 tee off continues in negative order, best handicaps last, always 3 players.

- On neither of the days there should be playing more than 2 players of one country in one group.

SCORING

- Valuation of results is separate for each day and each gross and net team.

Stableford Rules:

- Four Ball Better Ball: the two best results only count only count.
Four Ball Greensome: the two best results only count.
Single Stableford Scoring: the four best results only count.

RATING

- Daily results (Stableford), each separate for gross and net – for all three days – will be added up and identify the overall winners. In case of equal results after day 3 in gross and net, the first place will be determined by a sudden death game.
- The captains will nominate a player of their team for such game.

PRIZE

- There is one Gross-Cup and one Net-Cup, the “K&K Monarchy Trophy”, to be handed on to the winners year by year. Additionally, there are medals for each player of the first three winning teams, gross and net.
- The K&K Monarchy Trophy remains with the winning team until the following year only. In case a team wins the K&K Monarchy Trophy three years in a row, then that specific Cup will become property of such team.
- It is then up to the host of the next tournament to acquire a new Cup as next K&K Monarchy Trophy.
- Of course, each host may at its own discretion to acquire and disburse any other trophy as such host may think is appropriate (e.g. a trophy for single gross / net winners on day 3 of the tournament).
